

Families First Co-Parenting Class 2024 Registration Information

About the Seminar

Families First is court-mandated to help divorced or separated parents understand the effects of this situation on their children. Parents learn to promote positive parenting and to successfully co-parent with longevity, for the emotional health of their children. Family Compass is licensed to provide this seminar by the national organization. Seminars are offered as a one-time session, usually on the second Saturday of every month. Please see the list of upcoming dates on the next page.

Registration Information

- Register online at family-compass.org/families-first or by mail, email, fax. In-person registration at Family Compass' office available by appointment only. Call 214-370-9810 x110 to make an appointment.
- Checks and money orders are accepted, made payable to Family Compass, and must be sent in with the registration form. You will receive a receipt by return mail upon receipt of your registration form and payment. The court will be notified of checks returned for insufficient funds.
- Registration closes on the Thursday prior to class at noon.
- No refunds or credit for non-attendance.
- Classes are offered in English. Spanish-speakers may bring another adult to translate for them. Spanish language Co-Parenting Handbooks will be mailed to Spanish-speakers.
- Children's classes are not available at this time. We kindly request that no children be present within earshot during the virtual parent class due to the nature of material discussed. Please arrange for another caregiver to watch children in a different area of the home.
- Families First classes will be conducted virtually until further notice. You will receive an email with the virtual meeting link by the Friday morning before class.
- After you complete the class, you will be emailed a Certificate of Completion which you can provide the court.

CLASS TIME: Saturday: 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
