Families First Co-Parenting Class 2024 Registration Information

ABOUT THE SEMINAR:

Families First is court-mandated to help divorced or separated parents and other caregivers understand the effects of their situation on their children. Parents learn to promote positive parenting and to successfully co-parent with longevity, for the emotional health of their children. Family Compass is licensed to provide this seminar by the national organization. Seminars are offered as a one-time session, usually on the second Saturday of every month. Please see the list of upcoming dates on the next page.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

- Register online at family-compass.org/families-first or by mail, email, fax. In-person registration at Family Compass' office available by appointment only, by calling 214-370-9810 x110.
- Registration closes on the Thursday prior to class at noon.
- No refunds or credit for non-attendance.
- Classes are offered in English. Spanish-speakers may bring another adult to translate for them. Spanish language materials will be mailed to Spanish-speakers.
- Children's classes are not available at this time. We kindly request that no children be present within earshot during the virtual parent class due to the nature of material discussed. Please arrange for another caregiver to watch children in a different area of the home.
- Families First classes are conducted virtually. You will receive an email with the virtual meeting link by the Friday morning before class.
- After you complete the class, you will be emailed a Certificate of Completion which you can provide the court.
